HURLS BOMB AT LINCOLN

Thrown at Him While on Way to Be Inaugurated.

IT OCCURS AT BALTIMORE

Departed Husband of Lady Who Tells the Story For First Time Says It Has Been Kept a Secret and Now Related Because of Centenary.

Springfield, O., Feb. 8.—That an attempt was made upon President Lincoln's life in Baltimore as he on his way to Washington to take office is told by Mrs. Goggeshall, widow of the Springfield man who saved the president from death.

All of these years the story remained a secret with Mrs. Goggeshall, to whom it was told by her husband in secrecy. Mr. Lincoln told no one of it, neither in his family nor cabinet. It comes to light now merely because Mrs. Goggeshall believes telling it can do no harm, and it may be an interesting addition to the Lincoln literature. Her story is that a bomb was hurled into the coach occupied by Mr. Lincoln as it was standing in the station at Baltimore. And her husband first shoved Lincoln through the door of the car and hurled the bomb through the window of the coach away from the crowd.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A world temperance conference to be held within a year and possibly at Washington, is provided for in a bill introduced by Representative Sheppard of Texas.

The measure directs the president to invite various nations now represented at The Hague peace conference to send not fewer than twelve delegates to the proposed conference, the purpose of which will be to devise and recommend methods by which these nations will cooperate with a view to lessening and regulating international traffic in intoxicating liquors, narcotics and harmful drugs. The president is empowered to name 100 delegates to represent the United States.

It is believed the death of M. Mendes was accidental. He boarded a train at Paris for his home at Sainte Germain. The authorities are of the opinion he fell asleep in a carriage and by mistake opened the door of his compartment while the train was still in the tunnel and fell beneath the wheels.

One Hundred and Twenty-Five Holsteins Burn in a Barn.

Elgin, Ill., Feb. 8.—One hundred and twenty-five Holstein cattle, valued at over $11,000, were burned to death in a barn on a farm near Elgin. Every cow in the barn was destroyed. A peculiar coincidence in connection with the disaster was the fact that a barn built on the same site burned down twelve years ago, killing sixty cattle. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

The house of representatives has set apart Sunday, Feb. 14, as the day for eulogies on the life, character and public services of the late Representative Davey of Louisiana.

In the house the conference report on the deficiency appropriation bills were agreed to without debate. The bill now goes to the president. The report finally disposed of an item of $12,000 for automobiles for the White House by appropriation.

SAFETY APPLIANCE.

Austin, Feb. 8.—The house passed finally the Davis bill requiring railroads to be equipped with safety appliances. This is one of the labor measures.

Resolutions were adopted inviting Alphonso Steele of Mexico, the sole survivor of actual participants in the battle of San Jacinto, to address the house at his convenience. The state is to pay expenses of trip. A resolution was adopted in the house providing for the appointment of six stenographers.

A committee was appointed in the house, composed of Hill, Davis, Bowles, Buchanan and Von Rosenberg, to confer with citizens of Galveston having in charge arrangements for entertainment of legislature Feb. 29 and 21, and report to house on Feb. 12, the character of the program arranged for the occasion.

A committee was named to draft suitable resolutions thanking citizens of Houston for entertainment.

The senate, by striking out the enacting clause, killed the senate bill making it the duty of the secretary of state to furnish public libraries in the state that request same copies of all public documents free.

The senate bill to require common carriers operating in the state to equip their locomotives with automatic ash pans was engrossed.

Among bills introduced in the senate were these:

STARTLING STATEMENT.

Senator Thomas Makes Sensational Accusations.

PROCEEDINGS ARE SPICY.

Senate Decides to Appoint a Committee of Three to Investigate the Matter, the Members to Thoroughly Look Into and Report Within Week.

Austin, Feb. 8.—Quite a sensation was sprung in the senate Monday when Senator Thomas of Hopkins county arose to a question personal privilege and charged that he had been improperly approached and intimidated by outside interests. He also declared that other senators have said that never before in the history of the state has there been such an open and flagrant lobby maintained at Austin during a session of the legislature.

"I have seen the brazen effrontery of lobbyists who have appeared before our committees," said Senator Thomas, "and even suggest to members of the senate how they should vote on pending measures."

He called attention to various provisions of the anti-lobby law; that the committee rooms had been thrown open to everybody, whether interested in a bill or not. He wanted to appeal to the president and members of the senate to rigidly enforce the anti-lobby law. He charged that he had been approached and his vote solicited for bills pending before the legislature in violation of anti-lobby law; that the anti-lobby law has been violated in the senate and committee rooms over 1,000 times.

He charged that he has seen a certain state official, who should be attending to his duties, on the floor of the senate and in committee rooms using his influence to defeat a certain bill. He asserted he had been told that if he brought this question before the senate he "would be shot full of holes."

He believed that some bills have already been defeated by outside influences.

President Davidson wanted to know if senator Thomas referred to the chair as to granting of privileges on floor of senate to outsiders or to state officials. Senator Thomas replied: "No."

Senator Meachum took the floor and said he was surprised at disclosures made by Senator Thomas and in impassioned speech moved that there be a roll call and let each senator answer whether he has been improperly approached; that it was Thomas duty to go before the grand jury here and under oath tell of violations of law.

Senator Hume said that there is no need for a lobby law to maintain the senate's self respect, that he was able to take care himself if approached by any one. He said he had not even been approached by the preachers.

Senator Veale thought it was a serious charge and seconded the motion of Senator Meachum.

Roll call was taken and of twenty-five members present all except Thomas himself voted that they had not been approached or intimidated.

Senator Murray offered a resolution that Senator Thomas be brought before the bar of the senate and furnish names and dates on which he charges that he and other senators had been intimidated and solicited.

He subsequently withdrew his resolution and another offered by Senator Meachum and Sturgeon, which was adopted, providing that the president of the senate appoint a committee of three senators to make investigation of the language and statement of Senator Thomas, and report back their findings in a week. The committee is empowered to take testimony, administer oaths, etc. The chair appointed Sturgeon, Veale and Meachum.

MAN AND WIFE EXPIRE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wallace Die From Coal Oil Explosion.

McGregor, Tex., Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wallace died from burns received from an explosion of an oil can. Their two year old child threw the can into a blazing grate. The mother grabbed the can and hurried to throw it into the yard. At the door she met her husband. The can exploded in her hands and both were so badly injured their deaths resulted.

Fordyce to Go to Texas.

St. Louis, Feb. 8.—It is announced that Colonel Fordyce, a director of Brownville railroad, accompanied by other St. Louis capitalists, is going to Texas in a few days to investigate railroad conditions with a view to development on a large scale. Colonel Fordyce and associates have just purchased a half interest in the Stephenville, North and South road, and it is expected this line will be extended in two directions. It will go north to the Thurber coal field and south to the gulf, connecting with the Brownville line. It is believed H. Clay Pierce, the close business associate of Fordyce, is interested in the new purchase, as Pierce is now managing the Mexican railways.

SUNDAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Greatest Day in Church's History.
Entire Debt Wiped Out and Building Dedicated to God.

GREAT SERMONS BY DR. TRUETT

Sunday was truly an epoch making day in the history of the First Baptist church of Bryan. It was the greatest day in its history. It was a day of great things, a day of great sacrifices and withal a day of rejoicing.

Since the new church was erected the congregation has labored under a burden of debt, and soon after the new pastor, Dr. Weaver, came, it was resolved by him and the leaders of his congregation, that this debt should be lifted from the church, and the edifice dedicated to God. So that with all obstacles removed, the church might go forth upon its great mission unhindered and untrammelled.

With this end in view a strong finance committee was appointed, and they began the stupendous task of

First Baptist Church Bryan raising the $14,400 balance that was hanging over the church. They began the work in dead earnest and succeeded in raising about $10,000 of the amount, leaving a balance of $4,400.

With the end this near in sight, it was resolved to hold one great, final rally and complete the work. Sunday, Feb.
7th, was selected as the day and Dr.
Weaver went to Dallas to convey a special invitation to Dr. Geo. W. Truett to come and preach the sermon. The invitation was accepted and for some days the pastor and congregation were busy perfecting arrangements for the great occasion.

All the other pastors of the city, with that generosity that comes with brotherly love and Christian fellowship, called in their services for Sunday morning so that all might attend

Our Church at Marlin.

After much preliminary work and discussion running through two or three years, our people at Marlin have finally determined to build a handsome church edifice, and do it at once.
Heretofore the matter of location has been an unsettled question with them; but they have permanently agreed upon this, having purchased a beautiful and prominent lot on Coleman Street, with a frontage of 166 feet, extending back 208 feet. It is central and has a south front. Plans are now under special work, and they will soon be perfected, and then bids for the building will be submitted. Rev. I. F. Betts, the pastor, is greatly encouraged and feels sure that the enterprise will go right through to completion. His people have advanced his salary three hundred dollars over previous years, now fixing it at $1800. We congratulate the pastor and his people on their purpose to go forward in that important community, and Marlin will take her place as one of the best Churches in the Texas Conference.—Marlin Democrat.

Temple's Telegram.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" the famous farce comedy which had such a record breaking run in New York City and Chicago is one of the pleasing announcements for the near future. As a healthy, fun provoking farce, bubbling over with laughable situations at every turn, the play is proving to be even in greater popular favor this season than last. It is a succession of complications of the most absurd kind founded on an innocent falsehood originally told by Mr. Temple in order to save himself from the wrath of his wife. The company which will be seen is the No. 1 company having played all the principal cities and will be seen in its original cast on Feb.
13th at the Grand Opera House.

A LESSON FROM THE TRUSTS.

The trusts are responsible for much evil but, whether they intended it or not, they have done great good in demonstrating to the world the power of co-operation on a large scale. They have shown how by means of organization waste can be eliminated and the highest degree of effectiveness developed. Scientists have taken the hint and by means of better equipment and a division of labor, secured through co-operation, have in the last ten years made more discoveries than had been accomplished in all the preceding centuries. The churches and other religious and moral institutions have ceased to fight each other and are now making common cause for the uplifting of humanity over all the earth.
And, most important of all, statesmen have learned the folly of wars, by which even the victor is a loser, and are laboring to perfect a system of international co-operation which has already progressed so far that no nation goes to war without the consent of others.

The trusts have demonstrated that great things can be accomplished by co-operation and in no other way. The town where the people are organized and all working together for the common good never fails to prosper, whereas the reverse is true of the place where faction is rife. If the people of this city want a greater and a better and a more beautiful Bryan, they must get together and work systematically. He who allows petty prejudice or spite or any private grouch to stand in the way of any effort or enterprise for the common good is a public enemy.

Under Roosevelt's regime, in a time of profound peace, the national debt has passed the billion mark and is increasing at the rate of $16,766,482 per month. The pity of it is, the people don't realize what these figures mean; but the awakening will come some time.

Don't Blame the Legislature.
Those legislators who are crying "A subsidized press" and making bold the assertions that the country papers are under the thumbs of corporations and illegitimate business enterprises, are surely suffering from diseased minds.
With such breaks in the law making body, it is perfectly plain the insane asylums ought to be made larger.— Nacogdoches Sentinel.

It is unfair to blame the legislators.
One of them, Hon. Roger Byrne, used the language you object to, but he was quoting Governor Campbell. Since the governor has not denied saying it, it is fair to hold him responsible. It was an insult to every country paper in the state and some of these which have been strong supporters of the governor are resenting it as it deserves.

True religion is of God, sectarianism is of the devil.

The secret service is one business that does not advertise.

In the interest of good morals let us have no more laws that encourage perjury and hypocrisy.

A good many people regard the cocklebur as totally depraved and can never be converted.

Time was when Nashville boasted herself the Athens of the South. In some respects she yet resembles ancient Athens but not in anything to be proud of.

A Gatesville woman in shooting at one man with a sixshooter killed three and wounded a fourth. Just imagine what would have happened if her weapon had been a magazine rifle.

Says the Beaumont Enterprise: "Let Texas go ahead and work out her magnificent destiny. Why put hobbles on the state?" Don't get scare—Texas laughs at the hobbles and their hobbies.

Is there really any need of legislative sessions? The members could just as well stay at home and transact the public business by telephone and by mail. It would save lots of expense and would lessen the evils of logrolling and lobbying.

The effort of the government to substitute the traction engine for the army mule has failed, just as the bicycle and the automobile were unable to put the horse out of business.
In your diversification, plans don't leave out horses and mules. They are here to stay.

REV. CHALLENGER RESIGNED.

Resignation as Pastor of Christian Church Tendered and Accepted Sunday.

The following clipping is from the Windsor Review, of Windsor, Mo.:

"Rev. Jas. A. Challenger of Bryan, Texas, delivered two excellent sermons at the Christian church last Sunday. At the conclusion of the evening services Prof. Nate McCutchan announced that at the meeting of the official board held Sunday afternoon it was decided to extend Rev. Challenger a call to the pastorate of the Windsor church and that a reasonable length of time was to be given him in which to accept or reject the call. Rev. Challenger while here made a very favorable impression, both as a pulpit orator and a pleasant gentleman. He will probably notify the Windsor church some time within the next week or ten days of his decision in the matter."

With reference to the above the Eagle regrets to chronicle the fact that on yesterday Rev. Challenger tendered his resignation as pastor to his congregation and to his church board, and after prayerful consideration, it was accepted. The resignation is to be effective on March 1st, or as soon thereafter as the vacancy can be filled.

The Eagle feels sure that it but voices the sentiment of the entire citizenship of Bryan, and especially of the Christian community, in saying that this action of Rev. Challenger is deeply regretted. He has done a great work in Bryan. His church has been more than doubled in membership, has been revived into a new spiritual life, and a splendid new church edifice erected, that will stand through the coming ages as a monument to his zeal, and the zeal of his loyal membership. His going will be a great loss to the religious life of Bryan.

A pulpit committee to engage another pastor was appointed as follows: J. J. Ray, chairman; Geo. A. Adams, Joe B. Reed, L. D. McGee, J. T. McGee and W. T. James.

The following committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on Rev. Challenger's connection with the church, his resignation and departure: J. I. Barron, W. S. Collier and Guy Bittle.

BRAZOS COUNTY CORN SHOW.

Big Crowd Coming and Much Fine Corn Will Be Shown.

As the time draws nearer for the Brazos county corn show and Farmers Institute which takes place Wednesday the 10th, at the court house, the interest becomes all the greater. The farmers are vitally interested and reports from various parts of the county indicate that a very large crowd will be in attendance and that many exhibits of corn will be entered in the contest.

The premium list is long and very valuable. Quite a lot of cash is offered, and the many premiums donated by Bryan's progressive merchants are all valuable and the competition for them will be sharp. Not only that, but the exhibits themselves will open the eyes of a great many people. They will be utterly surprised at the splendid specimens of corn shown, not dreaming that Brazos county is capable of producing such corn as will be exhibited on that day. In this connection the Eagle would direct attention to the fact that at the San Antonio fair last fall, Mr. Jeff Steele of Millican won the first premium, twenty-five dollars in cash, for the best individual corn exhibit in a contest open to the world. This proves that Brazos county can grow good corn and this is the object of the corn show, to stimulate the raising of this great cereal, the most important of all our crops.

Our farmers will never prosper as they should until they learn to raise all the corn they use. The crop of last year was far above the average, and yet more than five thousand dollars worth of corn is now being shipped into Bryan every month. The farmers need this money for other things, and when they are properly educated in the science of corn growing, it will be theirs.

Everybody come to the show Wednesday. Help to make it a great success and let's all join forces in an effort to bring about a new era in agricultural conditions in Brazos county.

THE MINSTREL.

Bryan Athletic Boys Will Put on a Good Show.

The Eagle man yesterday attended a rehearsal of the Minstrel performance to be given on the night of Feb. 19th, and it was a winner. There is snap and go, from beginning to end, and in addition to a musical and snappy olio, the athletic work of the second part is graceful and clever, and considerably above the average.

Among the song hits may be mentioned, "Love the Last One Best of All," from the successful opera, "Merry Mary," which will be sung by J. D. Gantner; "What's the Matter With the Mail?" by Willie Boehme; "Dat Friend of Mine," by Jack Johnson; "When There's no one to Kiss Your Tears Away," Tom Daly; "On a Good old Trolley Ride," by Marshall Bullock; "Money," by G. W. Gardener; "If I'm Goin' to Die, I'm Goin' to Have Some Fun," Joe Walton. In addition to these a number of choruses are effectively introduced, and some clever dancing given. There will also be trapeze work, horizontal bar exercises, besides an irresistibly funny after piece entitled "The School of Acting." The boys will put on a good show, well worth the price of admission. The money derived from the sale of seats, will be expended in adding to the athletic equipment of their hall.

One Hundred New Waistings on Special Sale Tuesday.

We have received and will place on sale Tuesday, one hundred beautiful lingerie and lawn dress and tailored waistings. Fancy sleeves, season's latest production, at a saving of 20 per cent. Wilson & Darden. 54

MR. LOUIS REED DEAD.

Former Brazos County Man Died in Ballinger.

The serious illness of Mr. Louis Reed at Ballinger, mentioned in these columns some days ago, terminated fatally at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when death came to relieve him of his sufferings.

He had been ill with pneumonia some time and his sister, Mrs. T. J. Preston and Miss Edith Preston went to his bedside one day last week. His friends hoped to have better news from him, but their hopes were in vain.

Mr. Reed was 48 years, six months and eleven days of age. He was born at the old Reed home five miles of Bryan, and was reared in this county. He was a good, true man, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

He leaves no family of his own, but has living in this county two brothers, Messrs. Wilson Reed and Lee Reed, and two sisters, Mrs. Geraldine Kelly and Mrs. T. J. Preston.

The remains will be shipped here and be laid to rest in the Reed graveyard at the old home place. Owing to the uncertainty of the time of arrival, the hour of the funeral cannot yet be announced.

Mr. T. J. Preston left last night for Temple to meet the funeral party.

THE WEATHER.

TRAGEDY AT EDGE.

Two Prominent Young Men Were Boxing and One Was Killed.

One of the saddest accidental tragedies known in Brazos county in many years, occurred at Edge Sunday afternoon. Two prominent young men of the community, Bud Closs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Closs, and Ernest Free were having a friendly boxing contest and young Free was killed. The blow that caused his death was just above the heart and he never rallied from the shock, death resulting in about two hours.

It was indeed a most deplorable affair and the people of the community sympathize not only with the family of the deceased, but also with the young man who was the innocent cause of his death.

Young Free was twenty years of age, just entering a splendid young manhood, and was one of the excellent young men of that community. He was laid to rest at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the House graveyard.

YOUR BRAIN.

Keep It Plastic by Not Overeating as You Grow Old.

Up to a certain age the brain remains plastic enough so that if an injury occurs to the thought brain the person can begin over again and create new knowledge centers in the other hemisphere.

This has happened in many cases where young people have lost certain powers or faculties by cerebral lesions and have afterward recovered these faculties by developing new centers in the other brain. It rarely happens after the age of forty-five, and the reason is because most persons after passing that age soon clog their brains with calcareous matter by overeating and destroy the plasticity of their brains by filling them with food waste.

If all people past the age of forty-five would live on twelve ounces or less of solid food per day we should soon find that one may receive new ideas as readily at seventy-five as at fifteen. You cannot do this, however, if your brain is a hardened mass of waste matter. If you overeat you will be "set" in your ways and a has-been at fifty. Keep your phonograph records soft and receptive.—Nautilus.

A STAGE VILLAIN.

His Reputation Clung to Him Outside the Theater.

An actor in a small company was unable one night to get accommodation at the only hotel in an English town, it is said, because its proprietor, a remarkably slow going person for such a place, recognized him as the villain in a play which had just had a cash box, set fire to a house, killed a detective, damaged a race horse and betrayed the hero's sister.

But something like this really did happen to George Scott, manager of the Alhambra in London. In his younger days Mr. Scott was a stage villain of the deepest dye, and one of his favorite parts was that of the wicked Levison in "East Lynne."

After playing the character a few nights in Blackpool he had occasion for wishing to change his lodgings and, knocking at the door of a house in the next street, was greeted by the good lady who opened it with a shriek and the subsequent exclamation: "What! It's Levison, the dirty villain. Ye can't have rooms in my 'ouse! Get out or I'll call the police!"—London M. A. P.

Equal to the Occasion.

The author of "Across England in a Dogcart" once stopped to examine a church in the little village of Enstone. The day was warm, and on leaving the church I rested for awhile in the grateful shade of the building and for the sake of the coolness still kept my hat in my hand. While standing there I overheard one workman ask of another: "Why do 'e keep 'is 'at off like that out of doors, mate?" "Cause 'e's a Quaker, o' course," replied the mate. "Quakers allus do in churchyards."

There was a short, awkward pause. Then the first workman, evidently of an inquiring turn of mind, said to his fellow mason, who seemed to be considered an authority: "A Episcopalian one, 'e says 'e is. Wot's that, Bill?" "Oh," replied the learned Bill, quite equal to the occasion, "that's one of them fancy foreign religions, sure!"

Baptist Conference.

The Evangelist Conference of the Baptist church will convene in Marlin this morning and remain in session three days. Dr. Weaver is on the program for a paper on "How to cultivate the spirit of Evangelism," but does not think he will be able to attend, as he goes to Dallas at the close of the week to attend a meeting of the State board. Rev. S. W. Kendrick left for Marlin last night to attend the Conference and will be one of the principal speakers before the body.

Mr. Matt Gibbs Dead.

Domestic Economy.

"Hey, mon," exclaimed the braw, bonnie north countryman, "thrift is a wunnerful thing!" "Yes," replied his English traveling companion. "You're right there. Now, I gave my wife a ten pound note to manage on last time I was away, and—would you believe it?—instead of exceeding it she saved nearly a sovereign out of it to buy herself a hat!" "That's nowt," replied the Scotsman. "My wife gives the kids ha'pennies apiece to go to bed supperless; when they're asleep she takes the ha'pennies off on 'em aegan, and then she makes 'em do w'out any breakfasts for losin' 'em." Hey, mon, that's thrift!"—London Scraps.

In so far as it concerns the Eagle we don't care a whoop whether the anti-pass law is amended or not, but it is a pity to have the statute book of the great State of Texas disgraced by a law which is simply an expression of personal spite.
